

Treasury Department,

BUREAU OF THE MINT,

Washington, D. C., December 21, 1886.

Sir:

Your letter of the 16th December, referring to a number of subjects, suggests to me the propriety of requesting you hereafter to write separately on each subject.

It is not necessary that letters be in separate envelopes, but the subjects themselves should be treated separately and separately briefed.

Hon. Danl. M. Fox,
Superintendent Mint,
Philadelphia

Very respectfully,
Jas. P. Kimball
Director of the Mint
